

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR DOOR CARE - DO NOT REMOVE STICKER UNTIL PAINTER HAS READ AND UNDERSTOOD

It is important to understand that timber doors must be coated with the right product and application to ensure it is protected sustainably from the elements. The following must be adhered to if the door is to be warranted:

- On an exterior timber door the finish must be either Parkwood Signature Finish Kit, Sikken's, Cabots or Intergrain, which are all foam-filling products.
- The door is to be coated on all 6 sides (including top and bottom) with the same finish, and same number of coats, that is being applied to the face of the door.
- Finishing must comply with the technical data and instructions of the manufacturer of that finish
- Finger jointed timber must be coated using an oil-based paint or finish
- A timber door must be coated within 5 days of delivery, and before it is exposed to rain or sun rays

Please inspect the product to ensure it is the correct size and there are no visible defects.

The Parkwood Guarantee is VOID if:

- An oil or penetrating stain is used as the finish – even if recommended by a manufacturer of such products
- A timber door has insufficient cover (min 1.2m)
- A timber door is exposed to driving rain or long periods of sunlight (more than 4 hours per day)
- A timber or fibreglass door is finished in a dark colour, as this attracts the heat

Congratulations on your purchase of a Parkwood door!

As the product can easily be damaged, please be responsible to take care and wrap or cover it with some protection to ensure it is in good condition before and after coating, until site work is finished. Enjoy your door for years and years to come.

NOTE:

- Due to seasonal and geographical variations in atmosphere, moisture can cause a certain amount of shrinkage or expansion in a product – this is not a defect
- Natural variations in colour of timber is not considered a defect
- Door must be stored in a clean, dry area away from direct sunlight
- Parkwood will not be held responsible for additional charges of hanging or painting or any other charges arising from the replacement of products
